

3rd Annual New York

Rainbow Book Fair

America's Only LGBT Book Fair

Saturday March 26, 2011 • 11am-5pm

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Community Center
208 W. 13th Street, in New York's Greenwich Village

For more information: www.rainbowbookfair.org NYRainbowBkFair@yahoo.com

It's the 3rd Annual Rainbow Book Fair—the biggest and most important LGBT book event in North America.

It's more than 100 publishers, writers, poets, editors, and booksellers and the 1500+ readers who love and want to buy their kinds of books, from serious literature to wild, zany, and super-hot. It's totally free, with book discounts, giveaways, and famous authors, and it's sponsored by CLAGS, the Center for Lesbian & Gay Studies at CUNY. It's panels on writing and publishing, readings by new and established authors, a simultaneous Poetry Salon with dozens of poets reading non-stop, and it's all happening Saturday, March 26, from 11am to 5pm at the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Community Center, 208 West 13th Street, in New York's Greenwich Village. For more information: www.rainbowbookfair.org; email: NYRainbowBkFair@yahoo.com. But most important, be there the last Saturday in March for the Rainbow Book Fair because without you it just wouldn't be the same.

Readings hosted by Rachel Kramer Bussel

Poetry Salon curated by Nathaniel Siegel
& Regie Cabico

Featured participants: Christopher Bram, Kestryl Cael,
Martin Duberman, Thomas Glave, Sassafras Lowrey,
Raymond Luczak, and Felice Picano

Panels on

- Writing the Queer Past
- Zines and Alternatives
- Beyond the Bookstore—
The Future of LGBT Publishing
- Writing Queer Lives

“That's what you think of in the city.”

—poet Frank O'Hara

