The coordinators of the Ninth Annual New York Rainbow Book Fair, a project of CLAGS: the Center for LGBTQ Studies at the City University of New York, are excited to announce that we will continue to have the Fair at John Jay College, 524 W. 59th Street, just west of 10th Avenue. This year, we are expanding into two large well-lit adjacent spaces: Hound Square Center, a bright large student activity area easily reachable by stairs or escalators, and the student cafeteria area we were in last year. A stunning outdoor garden area is nearby this space, perfect for coordinating other activities associated with the Fair. There will also be “break out” rooms for panels, readings, our famous “Poetry Salon” produced by Nathaniel Siegel, with Regie Cabico, and lots of space to mix and mingle at the Rainbow Book Fair, the largest LGBT book event in the US, and now an international queer book fair and cultural event.

The Rainbow Book Fair will take place Saturday, April 29 from 12:00pm – 6:00pm. The fair is free and open to the public. A $3 voluntary donation is asked at the door, but no one will be refused entry. All visitors will need to have a valid photo ID to gain entry to John Jay.

Registration for 2017 has already started, and we urge you to register early via our website: RainbowBookFair.org/Become-An-Exhibitor

RATES FOR 2017 VENDOR PARTICIPATION

- Full tables: $130.00 (Early Bird Special until February 15th: $105.00)
- Half tables: $70.00 (Early Bird Special until February 15th: $55.00)
- Co-Op Table: $30.00
- Silver Sponsorship: $250.00
- Gold Sponsorship: $350.00

To register, go to “Other Amount”, and put in the amount of your registration as a vendor, or Sponsor. Then, go to “If you have a special purpose for your donation, please let us know” and in the pull-down window, select “Rainbow Book Fair” for your donation.

We’d also love for you to become a Friend of the Rainbow Book Fair. At the same pull-down window, just select “Friends of the Rainbow Book Fair donations.” Friends get first news about the Fair, get into our events for free, are listed in our program, and have the knowledge that they are keeping America’s largest LGBT book event going. Just remember, “You gotta have friends!” and we love you.
